

Transform your teaching this fall at with an online course through College of DuPage!

Fall 2019 ADJUNCT FACULTY TRAINING INSTITUTE (AFTI)

AFTI at College of DuPage provides online professional development for adjunct faculty at nationwide colleges and universities. These courses are designed to increase your teaching toolbox by providing best-practice teaching strategies and relevant course work to help you increase student success. Learn strategies that will translate into increased student achievement and reduced course withdrawal by students. Check out a course that begins in October and view our webpage for additional upcoming training. Go to www.cod.edu/adjunct_training

Diversity, Social Justice, and Inclusion in the Classroom

This module explores diversity and social justice, specifically in the context of the college environment. Concepts covered include race/ethnicity, gender, class, and individual and group experiences. You will discuss equity in education, access and inclusion, and diversity in the classroom and beyond. You will explore strategies for mitigating the problems faced by marginalized groups, particularly in regards to educational settings.
